

THE RICHMOND DAILY REGISTER

Established 1865—56th Year—No. 284

Richmond, Madison County, Ky. Wednesday, November 30, 1921

Price Five Cents

9 MORE MEN SOUGHT IN LIQUOR THEFT

Judge Cheatham's Son Wanted With Others In Connection Taylorsville Robbery

Louisville, Nov. 30—Nine more men, including the son of County Judge Thad Cheatham, are to be arrested in connection with the theft, two weeks ago, of 249 cases of confiscated whisky from the Spencer county court house at Taylorsville.

Judge Cheatham and his brother, Goebel Cheatham, were arrested Monday at Taylorsville by federal officers who charged them with violation of the Volstead act. Five other men were arrested on the same charge.

All were brought to Louisville and placed in the jail and were released on bond Tuesday by J. A. Craft, federal commissioner. Judge Cheatham's bond was fixed at $2,500 and the others ranged downward.

In making public the names, the federal agents made it known that the warrant on which Judge Cheatham and the original five were taken Monday was a blanket paper, naming 14 men in all.

The nine other men sought are Ben Cheatham, son of Judge Cheatham, Jesse Flover, Anderson Stout, Nelson Warren, Elzy Warren, Harry Taylor, Bill McCooper, Walter Gigginton and a man named Sandford. All are believed to live in the vicinity of Taylorsville.

At arraignment today District Attorney W. V. Gregory had not returned from Owensboro, but Commissioner Craft decided to conduct the hearing without him.

Attorneys for the alleged conspirators entered pleas of not guilty for the Cheathams, Cane, Bennett and Cotton.

Two negroes among those arrested pleaded not guilty. They at first pleaded guilty.

Judge Cheatham and his brother, Goebel Cheatham, and the others waived examining trial and were released on bonds. They were instructed to appear before the grand jury March 14, 1922.

Prisoners Hide In A Box

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Nov. 30—Two brothers, Bell by name, almost escaped from the county jail at Columbia before they were transferred to the reformatory here. One reason they failed to get away was because jailer Tarter started to fire into a box in the jail. One of the boys was in the box and when the jailer announced his intention to "plow" the box bell called and came out. He was locked up in his cell.

Reefoot Lake Up

Hickman, Nov. 30—Reefoot lake rose from 16 to 18 inches within a short time during the recent heavy rains throughout this section.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

Rev. J. A. McClintock has returned from Campton, Ky., where he closed a most successful and deeply spiritual revival at the Methodist church, resulting in over one hundred conversions, besides a great awakening and reconsecration of the entire membership.

LOCAL GIRL DIES IN BLOOMINGTON

Mr. N. G. Todd, of the Brassfield section, sold to C. C. Christian the past week a splendid pair of four-year-old mares mules for $340. He also disposed of a fancy saddle horse, C. B. Foley being the purchaser, at a fancy price. Mr. Foley shipped him to a party at Hazard, Ky.

Mr. O. H. Hill, of Morganfield, formerly with the Ky Utilities here, has been awarded vocational training and will resign his position and take up his new work the first of the year. Mr. Hill will be given a three year course in State University in which time he will graduate as electrical engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Hill will be at home to their friends in Lexington after the first of January.

The Home Candy Kitchen will open Thursday, December 1st at the same stand—Opera House building. Varieties of fresh homemade candies on sale. Your patronage appreciated. 283 2

University of Dallas Wants "Bo" (By Associated Press)

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 30—"Bo" McMillan, famous Centre College quarterback, left Fort Worth today to re-enter college. He carried with him a proposition from University of Dallas to coach its football team next year at a salary of $7,000. McMillan has the offer under advisement.

TIDAL WAVE SWEEPS PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

Manila, Nov. 30—The entire town of Ibagay, in the province of Capiz, was inundated by a tidal wave Sunday and many houses, with their occupants, swept out to sea, according to dispatches from the postmaster at Ibagay.

Dispatches to Constabulary headquarters here said the town of Macato, in the same province, was also submerged by a tidal wave, and more than 100 natives have succeeded marvelously.

Careful examination of rural association from Maine to California reveals a weakness, the great weakness common to them all. It is a stealthy enemy that steals away the bone and sinew slowly, unobtrusively, relentlessly. It is apathy, loss of interest, the "let George do it" spirit that inevitably saps the strength and vigor of members and officers alike. It is not enough that those at the helm be paid; whether the organization be social or strictly business the dread disease creeps in (this is the hope of the enemy.)

A typhoon struck the same region for two days last week, doing considerable damage.

Macato and Ibagay are towns of 10,000 population, each lying on the northern coast of the island of Panay. Macato is situated on the bank of a small river three miles from the beach.

WOMAN HELD FOR PERJURY IN FATTY CASE

San Francisco, Nov. 30—Prosecution rebuttal evidence occupied the entire session yesterday in the trial of Roscoe C. Arbutke on a manslaughter charge in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rapp. The prosecution will continue this character of evidence today.

Milton T. U'Ren, assistant district attorney, said that the commission of three medical experts who had examined the bladder of Miss Rapp would not report before Thursday. This commission will determine, if possible, if the organ was in a healthy condition before the fatal rupture which the prosecution alleges. Arbutke caused by the application of external force.

The major portion of the prosecution's rebuttal was introduced through a number of different witnesses, to contradict evidence that Miss Rapp had been in poor health for several years prior to her death.

An attempt by the prosecution to secure a perjury warrant for Mrs. Minnie Neighbors, a defense witness, was temporarily abandoned when the presiding judge of the superior court refused to act and judges in the criminal court departments withheld action until both sides could be heard.

Early last night, however, Mrs. Neighbors was placed under arrest on the felony of perjury, for which, under the laws of California, no warrant is required.

Friends here were deeply grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. Walter Quinn, in Bloomington, Illinois, Wednesday morning. The news was received by a wire to Mr. Walter F. Park, an uncle of Mr. Quinn.

Mrs. Quinn was a former Madison county girl, Miss Elizabeth Farris, a daughter of Mrs. Rufus McCord, who lived at Red House, and by her lovable and amiable disposition made a friend of every one with whom she came in contact. About six years ago she married Mr. Walter Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Quinn, of Bloomington, Illinois, at which place she has since made her home. Surviving her are her husband and one child and her mother.

The remains will be interred in the family lot in Bloomington. The sincerest sympathy of a host of friends here is extended to the bereaved husband and mother.

New ground will be broken and new growers spring up as the years pass when expansion

THE PROMISE OF THE BURLEY PATCH

Prominent Farmer Urges This Cow To Finish Its Pool Quota By Dec. 10

The miracle has been performed. The Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association, forty-two thousand strong, has come into being over night. It is a good and sufficient vehicle but no predilection in the mere formation of it will erupt wealth for the producers of Kentucky. No supermen will arise to carry single-handed to the heights of success this momentous departure. The vision, the thought, the labor lies in the future.

Cooperative marketing of farm products is not new in the annals of American agriculture. Hundreds of them have failed utterly, hundreds have held on miraculously and yet other hundreds have succeeded marvelously.

Careful examination of rural association from Maine to California reveals a weakness, the great weakness common to them all. It is a stealthy enemy that steals away the bone and sinew slowly, unobtrusively, relentlessly. It is apathy, loss of interest, the "let George do it" spirit that inevitably saps the strength and vigor of members and officers alike. It is not enough that those at the helm be paid; whether the organization be social or strictly business the dread disease creeps in (this is the hope of the enemy.)

The Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association will prove no exception to the rule. To be sure, it is full grown at birth but has yet to learn to stand and walk alone. When apathy sets in the poison enters.

When personal feeling and prejudice instead of judgment dictates the selection of directors and officers the tide has turned.

The "Patch" is full of anticipation.

We are filled with the enthusiasm that sees only the glory of the rising sun. These hopes will remain and the promise be fulfilled so long as each member and each officer strives for the betterment and strength of the body. The outlook, the possibilities are boundless.

But apathy will weaken, jealousy retard and suspicion cripple it. These cankers are inevitable. There remains then the one remedy: the bolstering up of interest, the alloying of suspicion and the obliteration of jealousy.

A stitch in time is part of eternal vigilance. New blood, the striving for new recruits, new action and clean living in every detail provides the antibiotic, the panacea. That there are now and always will be enemies of this great and wholesome enterprise goes without saying—the canker of apathy within and the para-social aspirants without.

Even now the success of it is being clawed at from without by the establishment of "Independent" markets. There is no material wrong here; no legal infringement of any rights. So long as men are wont to gamble there will be a speculators' market in the tobacco industry; it is not to be avoided. Its lure will ever be great for those who do not choose the beaten path. While, at best, a speculators' market must needs be hazardous and uncertain there will be those of independent men ready to heed the siren voice.

What ill effects on the body of producers will result depends upon the action or inaction of those joined together for six years with a single purpose. In the securing of new members lies the counteraction of loss by apathy, the strengthening of purpose and the elimination of those ills inevitably born of competitive "Independent" markets, and all independent burley tobacco markets are financial adversaries of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association.

It is the entering wedge of dislocation, if such be possible, that can only be obliterated by the reduction of outsiders to the point where there will not remain the necessary material for speculation. To strike now for additional members is of supreme importance if Madison county is to avoid turmoil, irritation and conflict.

The remains will be interred in the family lot in Bloomington. The sincerest sympathy of a host of friends here is extended to the bereaved husband and mother.

New ground will be broken and new growers spring up as the years pass when expansion

Weather for Kentucky

Fair Thursday; no change in temperature.

Today's Livestock Markets

Cincinnati, Nov. 30—Cattle strong; packing hogs 5¢ higher; pigs 5¢ lower; Chicago steady. Louisville, Nov. 30—Cattle 30¢ active and unchanged; hogs 20¢, 25¢ lower, tops 8¢; sheep 5¢ steady and unchanged.

SINGS TONIGHT AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A. C. Watson

Mr. A. C. Watson who is conducting the music at the First Presbyterian church revival services, is marshalling the talented singers of Richmond into large choirs, and the "Sunday" and junior choirs are furnishing a musical treat for the large crowds who are flocking to the church each night. Mr. Watson and Miss Bright will sing in a special number tonight. Every body welcome.

FILIPINOS NOT READY FOR INDEPENDENCE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 30—The Philippines should remain in their present general status until the people there "have had time to absorb and thoroughly master the power already in their hands," former Major General Leonard Wood, now Governor General, and A. Cameron Forbes, former Governor General, say in a report to President Harding based on their six months study of the conditions in the island.

"We are convinced," they say, "that it would be a betrayal of the Philippine people, a misfortune to the American people, a distinct step backward in the path of progress and a discreditable neglect to our national duty were we to withdraw from the islands and terminate our relationship there without giving the Filipinos the best chance possible to have an orderly and permanently stable government."

"We feel that with all of their excellent qualities, the experience of the past eight years, during which they have had practical autonomy, has not been such as to justify the people of the United States in relinquishing supervision of the government of the Philippines, the best chance possible to have an orderly and permanent stable government."

These observations of the investigators are contained in the general conclusions and recommendations made in the report, which was made public today. The national committee said "be reliant to the trust committed to its care by the founders; if it has now failed, continue activities."

The resolution will be acted upon later in the day.

Hens! Salads! Pies! Puddings!

Mrs. Wells and committee can furnish your Sunday dinner-ready to serve. Mrs. Biggerstaff will have her famous nut and fruit cakes on sale. Bring your friends to Immanuel Masonic Temple, Dec. 3rd.

It proves profitable. Conflict, always destructive, can be avoided if quick and constant effort be made to add members. In this way, as well as in detail management, will the glorious promise of the Burley Patch be realized.

GREEN CLAY

VETERANS WANT A STATE BONUS

Meeting To Be Held Here Saturday Night To Take Action To Send Legislature

The Daily Register has received the following from Taylor N. House, which is self-explanatory:

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 28. Editor Daily Register. Dear Sir:

The Veterans' Welfare Association which was organized on October 11th, in Lexington, with representatives from about twenty counties present, including Madison, has been holding mass meetings in different parts of the state of all ex-service men and women and their families and friends who favor a state bonus bill being passed by the next General Assembly of Kentucky, will hold a meeting in Richmond Saturday night, December 3, at 7:30 o'clock, in the circuit court room.

Every patriotic and red-blooded man and woman in Madison county is expected to attend. Last Saturday night a meeting was held in Frankfort and a resolution favoring a bonus was passed unanimously.

Winchester, Georgetown and other places have succeeded marvelously. Careful examination of rural association from Maine to California reveals a weakness, the great weakness common to them all. It is a stealthy enemy that steals away the bone and sinew slowly, unobtrusively, relentlessly. It is apathy, loss of interest, the "let George do it" spirit that inevitably saps the strength and vigor of members and officers alike. It is not enough that those at the helm be paid; whether the organization be social or strictly business the dread disease creeps in (this is the hope of the enemy.)

The Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association will prove no exception to the rule. To be sure, it is full grown at birth but has yet to learn to stand and walk alone. When apathy sets in the poison enters.

When personal feeling and prejudice instead of judgment dictates the selection of directors and officers the tide has turned.

The "Patch" is full of anticipation. We are filled with the enthusiasm that sees only the glory of the rising sun. These hopes will remain and the promise be fulfilled so long as each member and each officer strives for the betterment and strength of the body. The outlook, the possibilities are boundless.

But apathy will weaken, jealousy retard and suspicion cripple it. These cankers are inevitable. There remains then the one remedy: the bolstering up of interest, the alloying of suspicion and the obliteration of jealousy.

A stitch in time is part of eternal vigilance. New blood, the striving for new recruits, new action and clean living in every detail provides the antibiotic, the panacea. That there are now and always will be enemies of this great and wholesome enterprise goes without saying—the canker of apathy within and the para-social aspirants without.

Even now the success of it is being clawed at from without by the establishment of "Independent" markets. There is no material wrong here; no legal infringement of any rights. So long as men are wont to gamble there will be a speculators' market in the tobacco industry; it is not to be avoided. Its lure will ever be great for those who do not choose the beaten path. While, at best, a speculators' market must needs be hazardous and uncertain there will be those of independent men ready to heed the siren voice.

What ill effects on the body of producers will result depends upon the action or inaction of those joined together for six years with a single purpose. In the securing of new members lies the counteraction of loss by apathy, the strengthening of purpose and the elimination of those ills inevitably born of competitive "Independent" markets, and all independent burley tobacco markets are financial adversaries of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association.

It is the entering wedge of dislocation, if such be possible, that can only be obliterated by the reduction of outsiders to the point where there will not remain the necessary material for speculation. To strike now for additional members is of supreme importance if Madison county is to avoid turmoil, irritation and conflict.

The remains will be interred in the family lot in Bloomington. The sincerest sympathy of a host of friends here is extended to the bereaved husband and mother.

New ground will be broken and new growers spring up as the years pass when expansion

FORGET YOUR YESTERDAYS AND THINK OF TODAY & TOMORROW

Complete Returns on Constitutional Amendments

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Nov. 30—Majorities of 22,123 against constitutional amendment No. 1 and of 32,526 against amendment No. 2 are shown by complete official returns from the election November 8. Casey county ballots failed to carry the amendment propositions.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 28. Editor Daily Register. Dear Sir:

The Veterans' Welfare Association which was organized on October 11th, in Lexington, with representatives from about twenty counties present, including Madison, has been holding mass meetings in different parts of the state of all ex-service men and women and their families and friends who favor a state bonus bill being passed by the next General Assembly of Kentucky, will hold a meeting in Richmond Saturday night, December 3, at 7:30 o'clock, in the circuit court room.

Every patriotic and red-blooded man and woman in Madison county is expected to attend. Last Saturday night a meeting was held in Frankfort and a resolution favoring a bonus was passed unanimously.

Winchester,